History

Kristen Romanov was born in YE 01.

Kristen was born during the start of the First Elysian War and never knew his father who was an officer in the military because he was killed in action. At the tender age of 8 Kristen s mother died to the Great Plague of YE 08. From there he was moved from relative to relative never really staying with any of them long enough to remember them well. When Kristen turned 18 he was left to fend for himself and so he did. He took multiple part-time jobs to pay for his education and living expenses barely being able to make ends meet most of the time but Kristen was a very intelligent person to begin with. Kristen studied both genetics and business management. Kristen graduated top of his class and started Psychopomp pharmaceuticals which became a very successful business allowing him to found Psychopomp LLC in YE 20 along with his best friend Paul Smith. They began research on both Cybernetic and Genetic augmentation. Making steady progress they decided to try and combine the two to make super-soldiers and after years of trying they finally succeeded and added Pschopomp PMC as another part of the business and began to mass produce armor and they bought everything else they would need to supply their operatives. At some point after that Kristen became corrupt and began to think only of profit and his own gain so he began to abduct and augment children which he would then sell to the highest bidder all while hiding it from Paul. Kristen added Psychopomp Power to help the company become more self-sufficient and earn more revenue.
