Personality

Her goal in life since the beginning has been to get a good job doing good for people and to find a nice man to marry and start a family with. She can be a party animal when she kicks loose and can knock back more beers than anyone else, or so she boasts. When on duty she is on the verge of being a worry wart with how much she can fuss over her comrades but other than that she will joke around and generally keep everyone's spirits lifted. She is a very hard worker and can be sucked into her work at times forgetting about everything else and needs someone else to pull her out of it. She likes people who get stuff down, take responsibility, and will help out others without thinking of getting anything in return. She dislikes people who try to blame others or avoid work

History

Natyli was born in YE 19.

Natyli was originally a Nepleslian who worked for Psychopomp as one of their Combat Medics. This changed when during one of the missions she was caught in an explosion from a nearby transport which caused her to lose both of her legs. Now handicapped and unable to continue work in the field Natyli was put to work at one of Psychopomps facilities to treat the wounded who made it back from missions. Romanov felt that Natyli's talents were going to waste so he decided to expand on the Alex cloning project and Psychopomp got started on making a new body for Natyli. Romanov wanted her new body to be tougher than her old one so he decided to use Troll DNA for the base and worked up from there. The body had been successfully finished in YE 38 and Natyli took a year to rehabilitate and get used to her new body. She is now returning to work in the year YE 39 with great prospects and a lot of hope.
