Physical Description

Nikicon is a typical 🐰 Snowshoe Hare Anthro. She stands about 5' 2", adding another foot if her long ears are held upright. Big, bright violet eyes look out from under her black hair that's pulled backward between her ears, flowing freely until her shoulder blades and held in a loose ponytail. Her fur is pure snow-white with the whiteness broken up by her nose that is almost always wriggling around as the woman takes in the surrounding scents. A hole in her clothing allows that puff of a tail to poke out and wiggle freely. The snowshoe hare uses a soft, submissively-toned voice unless she is upset. Then, it is loud and the submissiveness is gone. To those with a sharp sense of smell, she would smell like pine and something not unlike peaches.

Personality

Nikicon is a really sweet, innocent person that can also be said to be easygoing and does not stand out much in a conversation. Being a bunny, Nikicon really loves anything with carrots in it- carrot cake, juice, pie- just name it and if safe to eat, Nikicon might love it. Nikicon does not like to stand around while there is work to be done, Being born, and living in, space she has found out there is little time to stand around, and that if something needs to be done, it needs to be taken care of right away before it gets worse. Being a bunny, Nikicon is very cautious and does not just jump headfirst into something. Rather, she slides in slowly feet first. Nikicon **loves** to be around others and does like to talk when the work is all done, or to ask tons of questions so that she'll know the plans fully.

History

Nikicon Swiftfoot was born 35日 4月 YE 19, outside the Kikyō Sector on a colony spaceship. Nikicon does not remember much of her childhood, as she was so busy taking care of the starship she was on as soon as she was able to. Nikicon has learned a lot in the areas of maintenance of a large craft and what it takes to keep one in good shape. While growing up Nikicon had an interest in the engineering section, as well as the operation of the spacecraft weapons and defense systems. Spending more time at the weapons console than in the engineering section Nikicon, became quite good at predicting ship movements to fire unguided weapons at them. In the year YE 35 she met her soon-to-be captain and best friend Fuji, Lenna, They left aboard a 75-meter freighter, the "Sigh water", soon upgrading to a 172-meter freighter that Lenna called "Sobek."

With the new, larger ship, Nikicon's childhood experiences came in handy as she was the one that mostly took care of Sobek after Lenna plowed through the pirate blockade, getting shot up as she refused to let her cargo be taken by pirates. Her talent came into play once more as Lenna would start to get small weapon systems to beef up the defenses of Sobek. Most of them would require upgrades or outright redoing of the power systems or hull supports.

One time while responding to a distress call, Nikicon and Lenna found themselves against a large pirate capital ship attacking a large freighter. There were some power armor and fighters alongside it, attacking the transport. Lenna charged in, and in nearly no time found herself out of ammo for her working weapons, the others damaged from the fight. Lenna told Nikicon to take a life pod and escape as she went to ram into the only working capital turret on the pirate ship. Lenna and Nikicon stayed on the bridge as long as possible before Nikicon got into an escape pod and fired out into space, heading toward the freighter hoping the pirates would flee. Nikicon lost sight of her friend Lenna's power armor in the explosion, and, trying to avoid weapons fire, fled to the transport.

Hearing that the crew watched and had not seen a power armor come out of the exploding ship, Nikicon waited until she was sure the pirate ship was gone before going back and looking for and finding the destroyed power armor with Lenna inside. Lenna was badly hurt and on emergency life support. Nikicon begged them to help save Lenna as they didn't have that fancy soul-thingy that more modern ships had access to, and if she died she would be gone. With tears in her eyes, she never left the side of her captain and best friend until 4 days later when her eyes opened and things got better.

After a while, Nikicon and Lenna found out that in their honor, the freighter crew was unpacking and restoring a ship that was going to be destroyed and recycled. Instead, it was to be given to them both for saving their lives, their ship, and keeping their cargo safe. Nikicon helped as best she was able to, and learned a lot about the systems of the ship and what it needed to keep running. After a few months, when Lenna was back to normal, they got into the odd ship and headed off into the darkness.

Skills Learned

- Domestic: Basic cooking, laundry, cleaning, and childcare.
- Entertainment: storytelling
- Fighting: very basic power armor operation, very basic Sword fighting.

- Maintenance and repair: Maintenance on craft frames, and hull, ability to maintain some engineering systems, basic repair and maintenance of ground vehicles, and fighters.
- Medical: Basic triage, first-aid, and CPR.
- Starship Operations: Engineering, Combat Systems, and coms systems
- Vehicles: Mecha basics, car and truck driving.

Nikicon was aboard a Colony ship for most of her life and got to be very effective at doing laundry, cleaning, cooking, and helping the adults with taking care of the children younger than herself. A lot of the children would bring a book over to Nikicon and ask her to read them the story within. While growing up Nikicon learned very basic power armor control through civilian exosuits that are used to move around large items as with doing outside hull maintenance on the large spacecraft they lived on. Due to Nikicon being taught how to maintain the outside with an exosuit she was taught how to combat rust and make sure it does not come back. Nikicon was also asked to help out in the medical bays and learned how to do triage, first-aid, and CPR thankfully her skills were never put fully to the test except for a rare case or two. When the craft was at a space station or in orbit of a planet, Nikicon would fly down on a smaller craft and drive the resupply trucks as with learned how to fix one if it broke down. This also led to Nikicon learning how to fix battle damage on fighters that would defend the colony ship, as with learning the combat systems position on the bridge getting very good at predicting strafing runs and bomb runs and defending against them. Just before leaving her home to go chase after dreams with Lenna on a freighter that she got from the ship, she was living on Nikicon was learning how to become an engineering officer.
