History

- His father, Jonathan Raggleton is in jail.
- His mother, Mary Raggleton, is dead

Pre-RP

Robert was born into a poor family. His dad, Jonathan Raggleton, was a low ranking gangster/drug-dealer. They didn't have much to live on, and things only got worse for Robert.

When Robert was 15, his dad was scapegoated by a major league gang boss, the Funky City cops threw him in jail for pretty much the rest of his life. Robert's mom, Mary Raggleton, worked various jobs to provide for the both of them. Then, one day, as she walked to work, she got caught in the cross-fire of a gang fight. She didn't survive.

Robert took to the streets and joined up with a small gang called "The White Scorpions" where he did minor crimes; breaking and entering, petty theft, and mugging. He kept this up till he was 25 when he was caught mugging someone on another gang's turf. He was beaten, whipped, tortured, and left for dead on the edge of his gang's turf with his right eye cut out and his right arm cut off. As soon as he healed, he straightened up and left his gang. He tried to get by as a solo mercenary, but nobody would hire him. He was drinking his sorrows away with the last of his savings when he noticed an ad which held the potential to change his life. Openings on a Mercenary Ship called the ISC Phoenix. He packed up his trade-mark rag-mask, his knife, and his pistol and headed to the listed address.

Skills

Fighting

Robert has long since mastered knife-fighting, and fights with his hands in a free-style form, not unlike judo, but he has had no real training in martial arts. He also knows how to use pistols, bats, chains, and other blunt objects, but not to the degree of his knife or fist fighting skills

Physical

Having lived a life on the edge, he knows how to run correctly, thus quickly. He can hold a sprint for 3 minutes and can run almost forever but not both at the same time.

He also can do some minor acrobatic tricks such as tumbling, back-flipping, pole-vaulting, and somersaulting

He knows how to swim, but is only good enough to keep himself or someone else afloat.

Rouge

He can pick most locks, hotwire most civilian cars, move quickly and quietly, and lie at the drop of a dime, unless he's completely flustered. He can pickpocket if need be, but doesn't really like to.

Leadership

He knows how to take charge of a group, and is good at thinking on his feet, but he prefers to let others step up and take charge. Only if he knows he's the best for the job will he take charge.

Entertainment

He is good at telling jokes, loves to flirt, and really loves showing off his knife-throwing skills. He has a few routines he used while trying to survive on his own, which are a mixture of acrobatics and knife-tossing. He can also juggle.

Communications

He speaks the common language, and the gang's cant. He also knows how to read lips and speak in sign language.

Technology

He can operate most land-based vehicles available to civilians, but he's smart enough to guess at military land-based vehicles
