Quote from Solanii Talk and Treaties

He then reached to the left breast of his navy coat, and took the medal he had pinned to his lapel. The object was gemed with rubies, and made of the metals that comprised the armor of their ships. The seal was the bust of a beautiful young woman. He offered the trinket to Aaki. "The seal of the empress. The Symbol of her authority, rewarded to me for valor in service to the union. I am not a rich man. I come from humble origins. This is probably one of my most prized possessions. Take it, on behalf of my ship, crew, and people. To you, and yours." "There is nothing in the universe I would rather accept than that which you hand me, Commander Tam." Aaki reached out and graciously brought the seal of the empress into her hand and held it at eye level for a moment. It did not look like she was appraising it or eyeing it for its worth, but rather was apparently humbled and there was a misting of emotion in her eyes as she studied the seal.
