Character Description

As an identical twin, she looks almost exactly like Aeta Kurosaki in many ways in terms of appearance and the height, however, where Aeta has short hair, because she doesn't want anything bad to happen while she's using the ACE to check on the Mines, Astrid has chosen to let her hair grow its kept controlled in a braid. Her eyes are more orange than green, and unlike her sister she didn't have a tail.

History

Astrid's history is remarkably similar to Aeta, in that she like her sister emerged into existence on a ship, as her parents traveled from Yamatai Star Empire to a place not within the Empire because her parents were former citizens who wanted to leave and find their adventure elsewhere. Since being born the Neko twins spent their 3 months growing time, playing with their toys, playing games and making up fun adventures with each other. By the time the girls were fully matured, they had lived on Planet Osman for over 2 months.

Astrid chose to focus on the business aspect, and she took classes on the subject and finally for true work experience, she worked at various stores on the world, amassing some money of her own before she started a Lemonade business which was somewhat successful as far as she knew. But then there was an exodus and she had to leave with the others. Discovering alongside her sister the disarray of the miners and the organization, she aided her sister in reorganizing it, and now she sits in a lavish office on the new homeworld of Sirris VI.
