Personality

Sif is very loyal towards her creators and naturally driven to strive for victory, her life has seen the horrors of what one could handle. But in her opinion, it shaped her, it formed her to the person she is right now. Sif is considered ruthless and cold in both her way of talk and actions. In the field, she has earned her nickname, Reaper, with the glory by right in combat. But her methods of extracting information were an additional add on her nickname.

Like most of her sisters, Sif's motivation to serve her creators is to help unify the universe, to protect her fellow Neko and to prove herself to earn a better life. Sif is known to be stubborn, but ever turned her back on her creators, she sees their expansion and control as the true and only way. But the last few wars made her reconsider the position her people were in.

History

Created in YE 31 at one of the Mass Cloning Facility, Type 30 to be serving as the second batch of new NMX Nekoalkyrja troops, Sif was trained to be a NMX Heavy Armor Operator, able to control and operate tanks or other large armor vehicles, including armored tactics and strategy. Sif was immediately after her short training sent to her assignment the NMX-The Ire Infestation an NMX Escort/Destroyer.

In the beginning, Sif was naive, was thinking that she had the rights to speak up. But the Mishhuvurthyar disciplined her correctly by lashing her until she was beaten to obedience. After that, she did whatever her creators asked of her which slowly turned her into a favorable position as she gained ranked and quickly rose to Master Fighter within those years of service. Notable on her service record is how she was part of the ambush of Task Force Torch in YE 33 that got her to the rank of Master Fighter. She became ruthless and was responsible for killing countless of NMX Nekoalkyrja that served the Yamatai Star Empire.

Eventually, she was pulled back to the Rabaal System in early YE 33, where the Mishhuvurthyar exploited Sif obedience to make her a Common Overseer as they would put a small group of soldiers under her command. She was part in the dark periods of the Battle of Yamatai. Sif manage to destroy Mezerit with her troops and successfully pulled out. In YE 34, the YSS Yamatai entered with the First Expeditionary Fleet into the system to bring the war to an end. Sif was part of the space force to enter the Yamatai and take most of their enemy down, escaping the vessel just in time as it got destroyed. With the war now lost, she managed to escape on the NMX The Primeval, a small and damage NMX Scout.

For years, Sif fled the system by system when being hunt down by the Star Army of Yamatai and in a final effort she and her broken crew managed to taken down the enemy. Yet with the result of crashing down onto UX-27 System on Takara.
