Physical Description

Howard is a rather tall man with a Caucasian skin tone, standing at 6'2. He has brown eyes with jet-black hair, and is clean-shaven. He is of average muscle build and has handsome facial features. His weight remains around 160 pounds, which allows him to remain light on his feet. He usually smells of what he was making in the kitchen that day, otherwise he emits a fresh scent due to his deodorant, and rarely, cologne (which can sometimes smell like a hint of bourbon and oranges).

Personality

Howard is usually pleasant to be around, but when he's had a few drinks he can be a bit on the abrasive side. He has somewhat of a temper and has been known to go off on his subordinates when they fail to meet a deadline, but he usually apologizes and insists he doesn't mean to sound rude or mean, he just gets irritated when their product is wasted or not used. For the most part Howard is kind and respectful to everyone he meets, but once you show you cannot be trusted once, it's hard to show him that you can be trusted again and he becomes weary of you. He loves talking to people, and will talk your head off about current events or cooking techniques if you ask. Once you get to know him it's hard to truly anger him, and he will do everything in his power to help you.

History

Howard grew up on Yamatai, but his family was known to be a heavy supporter of Neplesian independence. Once they had received independence, his family moved there to make a new life. They founded a chain restaurant business where Howard worked for most of his teenage years. He joined the Star Military of Nepleslia as a cook for two years before leaving to join Section 6, hoping to make a new life for himself beyond Nepleslia, and maybe even start a family.

Skills Learned

- 1- Culinary He is able to create a delicious meal out of few ingredients and is able to cater to most allergies, dietary needs, and personal preferences.
- 2- Communication He is able to use all forms of communications devices from his basic training and can effectively and efficiently communicate with others, whether it be orders, a list of ingredients, or simply speaking clearly to a guest.
- 3- Fighting Howard is adept in hand-to-hand combat and is comfortable with weapons, having received basic firearms training.
- 4- Survival Howard is able to survive in the wild, whether alone or in a group, and can accurately locate water sources, identify food sources, and build an adequate shelter. He also knows how to create fire and hunt proficiently.
- 5- Strategy Howard is skilled in giving tactical commands, and his specialization helped him hone that skill as he ran a kitchen at both a base and aboard a starship during his time in the Star Military of Nepleslia.
- 6- Mathematics While he wasn't a fan of it, he became quite good at doing math quickly in his head due to the need for converting recipes to produce a cost-effective yield, while also producing enough product to feed everyone.
