Her eyebrows are rather slender, and she has crimson eyes. Like her mother, she has a very obvious hourglass figure, with slightly wider hips, and DD cup size. Her face is slender and youthful, having soft like features, and is heart shaped.

Personality

Jane like her batch sisters are slaves to their own minds, mental conditioning and subconscious chains preventing them from being more than drones. Trapped inside are emotions she's never had the opportunity to feel, or much less express. She comes across as numb, or even cold because of this. Socially awkward is an understatement with her and her siblings, as with their chains, they don't know how to operate as people. This may all change however as something is beginning to crack within her mental prison.

History

In YE24, cloning began for the Fenrir project, a initiative that sought to create mass produce-able soldiers. In this they were successful with the creation of their prototype who later became known as Jack Pine. A batch of 100 were created from him, 50 male, and 50 female. The males became known as Jacks, while the females were known as Janes. Jane bares this name just like her batch sisters, and was a slave to be used as a expendable soldier. But event were put in motion that saw the products shelved in cryogenic sleep, the data being used else where. for 16 years, Jane and her siblings slept, fated to be forgotten, but the prototype rose against the wishes of his masters. In YE39, Jack Pine founded Section 6, which he would later use to free the batch of siblings, having been unaware of their existence. He took them in, gave them a military to fight with that actually cared about them, and through it, hoped to help them break their changes. It was proven it could be done, as two before her had grown into unique individuals, later known as Sparks, and Talos. However, even with her new freedom, even after a year, Jane is still trying to just operate within the circumstances, but her behavior has begun to deviate...
