Physical Description

6'2 in height. Medium musculature, muscled but not bulked. Slightly tanned. Crimson eyes. Medium size ears with orientation of 1 inch from head.

Black hair, short but spiked in the front. Short beard and goatee combo. Long scar on right side of face running over eye, but eye is not injured. Has tattoo of a skull stabbed through with a crimson sword with a large black wing on either side of sword on his back and a tattoo of a jagged helix like shape that forms a semicircle on the left side of his face next to his left eye. Deep rough voice like that of an older man despite his young age of twenty-one. Generally when he hasn't been very active, he smells of cedar scented cologne, but tends to smell of sweat, and weapon residue after combat.

Personality

It is very hard to anger him. He is very patient person. Will not stand for the reckless endangerment of innocent civilians and non-combatants. Tends to be cautious and observant unless an innocent is in danger. His hobbies include the modification of weapons, vehicles, and equipment; reading, working on new tech, and playing the guitar.

Does not spend his money much, or for the customization of equipment. Hardworking and tends to be quiet but is open to socializing with others. Will treat others fairly until given reason not to.

He does what he feels is right. Loves combat, and always respects his opponents.

History

Mark has no recollection of his past, but he was once a man named Jack Pine who after serving in the NSMC for five years, left to join the SkyGuard on 188604. He then founded Section 6 which led to a national joint project of building a new type of space station. His ship was attacked on its way to survey the build site, and was listed as KIA several weeks later as he was left drifting in a piece of ship wreckage in a chemical induced stasis. L'kor salvaged the ship wreck, but were unable to process it as SOFT forces assaulted the station it was brought to. Jack woke up during the fighting and with no memory of his past, or even who he was took the name Mark Oaklen. He now travels with the YSS-Kaiyo crew.

After operation star princess, the crew was set to make a trans dimensional trip. They were given the option to have a ST copy made to stay in the Kikyo sector. Mark accepted and now follows the clues of his past. The copy leaving with the crew enlisted, training at fort hajime for the two month period prior to the trans dimensional trip and now is part of the crew as a Santo Hei of the SAoY.

(Kaiyo II) After returning from ayenee, Mark has suffered physical changes he has developed an anxiety over. Shortly upon returning, the kaiyo is sent to investigate planet H. There Mark deployed with PA infantry to survey planetside. He was deployed with team kraken which suffered casualties as their search became a race of survival. They escaped the shattering planet, and boarded a kuvexian vessel.

The kuvies had turned planet H into a weapon. Mark and the rest of the ground team cleared the ship and commandeered it. Mark took the helm of the enemy vessel and rendezvous with the kaiyo. The kuvie vessel unofficially dubbed Palm, is turned over to the SAoY for study.

Kaiyo crew now enjoys leave during the Havok festival.
