- Likes: Being with other people, reading, organizing his medical tools
- Dislikes: Disorganization, isolation, assisted suicide
- Goals: Become the best damn doctor there is

History

Family (or Creators)

- Alica Corbin (Mother)
- Devlin Crobin (Father)
- Beth Corbin (Older Sister - Missing)
- Coda Corbin (Younger Brother)

Pre-RP

Alec lived a pretty pampered life for the being in the Democratic Imperium of Nepleslia. He was born into a rich family with a lawyer for a mother a former NSMC veteran for a father. He rarely ever had much adversity in the beginning of his life, save for his older sister occasionally bullying him. He fell in love with medical science at an early age and would constantly read on it and pretend to play doctor as a kid. As he grew up, his passion and knowledge grew with him, along with the opportunities to practice healing people at the local clinics. He was always out to make friends but tended to drive quite a few people away from him. the loneliness took a small toll but he still pushed on.

By the time he was 18, he was fairly certain that he was well on his way to becoming a doctor. That was, until his sister who was slated to fulfill the family heritage of having the oldest child join the NSMC disappeared. Deciding to make his family proud, he enlisted instead, hoping to forward his medical experience as a marine medic.

Skills

Communications

Radio operations, Trade, medical labels. All learned through extensive reading and training. Alec mostly enjoys the reading part.

Fighting

Hand-hand, melee, firearms, explosives. All the basic violent ways to end another being's life, Alec learned it in basic training. He mostly prefers to stick with rifles due to its versatility.

Survival

Hunting, gather, and not dying in the wilderness. While he lived a mostly pamper life, the forth month of training was the most rigorous one for him. Still, he followed everything by the book and learned what was needed from how to skin a quarry to making a makeshift tent.

Strategy

Before enlisting, chess was a secondary diversion of his. Not a regional champion of any sort but was very competent with his strategies. Going through basic taught him more about actual strategies and helped him hone his skill.

Medical

His favorite area of expertise. One of the first things Alec read was a medical digest, sparking his dream of healing people. When he was a kid, his sister got into fights quite often and he was always there tend to her wounds. In his teens, he spent his time after school either volunteering at some of the clinics in the slums or studying medicine and procedures. After enlisting and going through basic, he was sent to the Nepleslia Prime Medical School for medical training to become a Marine Medic.

Chemistry

Mainly focused on medical solutions and mixtures. Alec focused on this during high school and would occasionally try to make some homemade mixtures in his off-time. Only created alcohol twice and an explosion once.

Knowledge

When he was a young boy, Alec use to listen to all the stories of being a former trooper with the NSMC from both his father and grandfather. While not academic on the subject, he still has quite a bit of knowledge on the history of NSMC.
