Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Elise is a strict woman who knows when to talk and when to keep quiet, she normally keeps to herself and doesn't share anything about her past, she likes to keep the mystery in who she is and how she knows what she knows.

She has a seductive side as well mostly to convince people that her way is better, there is also a violent side to her that comes out when she gets annoyed, it is a small resemblance of her past gang life. She normally apologises soon after and resumes her regular strict woman or seductive woman personality, which ever is needed to smooth things over the bump of her aggressive side.

She is quite cold hearted and likes it that way, she still knows when to act as she likes a person 'all for the money' she tells herself when she acts warm hearted.

Elise has a tendency to go overboard which would put what people call police brutality to shame, as she can be a lot more brutal than someone would expect this woman to be.

- Likes: Money, guns, spiders and alcohol
- Dislikes: Her past, slobs, greasy food, loud egotistic people and gangs.
- Goals: Her goals are to find out who her parents where and to get revenge on her old gang,

Pre-RP

As a child growing up in the lawless outskirts of Roger Wilco City's Urban rezone, Elise learned to rob and cheat to get by. Stealing and stripping hardware, while life on the streets taught her self-reliance. When she was six, a ragtag group of criminals took a shine to the young delinquent and brought her into their fold. By the time Elise was eleven, she had become a seasoned accomplice, and she relished the thrill of every heist.

Elise's attitude changed when the gang had gave her a job to kill a 'client' that had stop paying the gang their protecting money, the gang had captured the 'client' and were holding her in one of the back rooms of the gangs hideout. She walked to the room where the 'client' was bound and held up by two other gang members, she just stood looking at Alice bound by the gang and dropped her weapon. The few minutes after seeing who was the 'client' still haunt her, as she begged with her gang to let her go, that she would do anything for them if they let her, all her begging fell on deaf ears as her closest partner C pulled out his gun, aimed it at Alice and fired. Elise had closed her eyes when she heard the shot and when she opened her eyes there was Alice not moving on the floor.

After this act by her gang, Elise severed her connection to the gang, just one tattoo to reveal she was ever part of it still remains. She returned to a life of solitary crime, but stole only from other criminals. Rather than seek Elise's arrest, an officer of the National Police Force of Nepleslia offered the criminal a way to pay her debt to society: work for the law in Roger Wilco City. Elise laughed. To her, a job that let her beat up crooks without forcing her to run from the cops sounded perfect. She immediately accepted.

Elise got training from the Police and was let on her way, for the first couple of years she had an officer with her to make sure that she wasn't just going to run off with what she knows and go around on a murderous rampage. The year after that she was stalked by an officer just in case as she done a lot of free lance work as a bodyguard and security for clients.
