History

Family

Father: James Stanton Mother: Emma Stanton

Pre-RP

Harvey (originally known as Eric) grew up in the college town of Doshington and was raised as an only child by two loving parents, both teachers, which he got along with very well. He lived a peaceful, largely uneventful life. He excelled in school and the youth cadets program he participated in from the very first day he was eligible to take part in it. Harvey greatly enjoyed the cadets. As a result, it had profound effect on his personality as he took everything he was taught to heart and became very fond of the military. So great was his enthusiasm towards the armed forces that when he turned fifteen he traveled alone to the slums of Funky City to enlist. Upon meeting a recruiter he gave a fake name, lied about his age and claimed he was an orphaned street youth without documentation that would likely resort to a life of crime if he wasn't able to get in. Not wanting to worry his parents and believing they would respect his wishes, he left behind a note stating what he had intended to do. He successfully passed all exams and training and found they did as he had expected. It wasn't too hard for them. They had known he would likely eventually enlist for a long time and were proud of his decision. He had also never really given them trouble before and they figured he was already mature enough to decide what he wanted to do since he was much more disciplined and sure of himself than most kids his age.
