He tends towards an almost bouncy type of motion, and he thinks of everything in terms of motion. He is perfectly willing to kill someone who is armed, but refuses to kill a civilian

Likes: Stimulents, Borsest, “playing politics”, combat

Dislikes: Cats, Anal-retentive commanders, killing civilians

Goals: Sur

vive, Raise a family, get richer/more famous etc.

History

Istvan's family was hardly rich, but they did live somewhat comfortably compared to many around them. The Yuttreberg family is very close knit, and they wear their slavic origins as a badge of pride. There is probably a certain amount of Idol-Sol in the Yuttreberg blood, given Istvan's height; the tallest in his family in fact. When Istvan turned 20 he decided that his family no longer needed his protection and he joined the Neplesian army.... It's been five years since then, and he's fought a few skirmishes, but has the odd tendency to be in the wrong place at the wrong time whenever something big was going down... He's a member of the greens, not the reds, though it's not as if he cares about the politics of it all.

He was in both of the training sims, with Kokuten, Rico, Adrain, Fian, et al, in each of which he dealt heavy damage, and his unit took heavy losses.

He disarmed a bomb while visiting Elysia, with Ally's assistance.

He was ambushed, and a direct witness to the death of Rico, and had believed he killed the man

He is developing a relationship (possibly) with Benji.

He is involved with the first contact of the freespacers.

h it's not that he cares about the politics of it all...

Skills

Pilot:

The character knows how to pilot power armors beyond the general knowledge provided by fighting/physical. He knows the ins and outs of a power armor system and is able to diagnose and solve minor to moderate system problems (electronic malfunctions, intake problems), and can perform rudimentary repairs (very basic) with proper tools. He can operate hand-controlled flight systems. He is very skilled in armor maneuvering and weapons operations in both combat and non-combat situations. He is skilled in space-based engagements.

Fighting:

This character is skilled in street-fighting, though uses no "official" form of self defense (Such as a martial art). This character is well-versed, however, in the fine "art" of fighting dirty, and using whatever odds and ends come to hand as improvisational weapons. This character is also skilled in combat with weapons including Power Armour combat, and grenade and energy-rifles.... This character specializes in "boarding conditions"

Maintenance and repair: This character is skilled in the maintenance of basic devices. He is more skilled at fixing his power amour then most power amour pilots are. He specializes in "Combat jury-rigging"

Communications:

This character is familiar with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, starships, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. Your character is fluent in English and Russian. He can speak and write both correctly and can write reports, fill forms, issue orders under fire, etc; however he speaks both with a somewhat idiomatic accent. This character is a skilled liar, and posses an awesome poker-face

Physical:

This character is very flexible, and is also rather acrobatic. This character knows the physical side of piloting combat amour. This character also posses some zero-G experience, though only enough to keep from looking like a fool, no he is not skilled enough to pull stunts.

Rogue, Streetwise:

This character grew up in dangerous conditions: He knows how to scope an area, how to offer a bribe, and (roughly) how much to offer, as well as how to survive on the streets. He knows the signs and trappings of underworld power and how to mimic them if necessary. This character is a skilled liar, and posses an awesome poker-face.

Leadership:

This character is skilled in negotiation, especially in the sort that keeps a group of warriors from ripping out each other's throats.
