Physical Description

Jared is 5'8", 150 pounds and average build. He is tan, with blue eyes, and close cropped dirty blonde hair. He has cybernetic eyes implanted, because as a sniper they help with target acquisition and interface with his rifle. He has a tattoo down his right arm of a tribal design.

Personality

Jared is duty driven. He joined the Space Marines Corps as a way to get a better life from the crime and gangs on his home world. He sees them Corps as a organization that saved his life, so he believe he owes his life to them. He works hard, and will play harder. On his time off he will drink, and if he is drinking, he gets drunk. He has 2 modes, mission mode and non-mission mode. When he is on a mission, he will be all business no fun, but when he gets back he lets loose. As a Sniper, he has been trained to be cautious and patient, but he still has yet to test himself and does not truly know how he will react.

He doesn't have close relationships yet, he wont let people in due to past trauma. He is slow to trust. When he joined the Corps, he left all attachments to friends and family back home and didn't look back. There is little chance he will ever go back and visit them.

History

JARED BARRETT was born in YE 18.

JARED was born in YE 18 in the city of Funky City. He does not remember his family as they sold him to a criminal gang when he was very young. He grew up in crime, as a child, asked to steal things, be lookouts and just generally the small stuff that children are usually good at. Getting into small spaces and what not. He ran afoul of authorities, running up a precious rap sheet in a small amount of time. The entire time he was committing crimes was for his survival and not because he liked it. If one of the children failed at a task, they were beaten for their failure. Jared learned quickly it was less painful to be successful than to fail. He bided his time til he was old enough to join the military, and never looked back.

Social Connections

JARED BARRETT is connected to:

Skills Learned

Communication

As a new member of the Marine Space Corps, he has gone through the requisite boot camp training and is fluent in using radios and communication equipment, as well as fluent in Nepleslian language.

Fighting

Through the boot camp, he went through hand-to-hand combat training (primarily focused on disabling and/or killing opponents) and has followed up that knowledge with a rigorous training program. Weapons he is trained in include pistols of all types, knives, grenades (and other forms of explosive weaponry) and rifles of all kinds. He is in excellent physical shape and has considerable endurance. He is also able to pilot land-based power armors, but must rely on the suit's A.I. to do anything advanced.

Survival

He knows how to survive in hostile environments. He can build shelters, hunt and forage for food, build a fire, etc. He can camouflage himself and is familiar with guerrilla warfare tactics.

Strategy (Tactics/discipline)

He can understand and give out tactical commands and work with his troop to follow those commands efficiently. He knows the importance of teamwork on the battlefield, has been intensively trained in discipline and morale, and is able to recognize the command structure even while under extreme pressure (combat, etc). He is able to recognize ambush points. He knows basic math in order to calculate distances, etc, and can use a tactical map.

Sniper Training

Through extensive sniper training, he is a proficient in judging wind direction and picking targets. He is proficient in the different sniper rifles available.

Technology Operation

As a child on the streets, he had to learn how to operate computers and other technological systems, having to learn some small hacking to successfully steal to survive.

Culinary

Part of the skills of surviving on the street is learning to cook whatever you can find. He may not make the most sophisticated of dishes, but he can put ingredients together to make an edible dish.
