History

PreRP

Jim Skylar was born in Funky City. His family lived in the middle class areas which were just as bad as every other part of the city. He was exposed to crime daily and often times took part in the crimes. He slowly started to become another thug and to get involved with bigger crimes and bigger money. When he was 15 he found his father had been mugged by people he thought to be his friends. This made him stop his bad ways and to start cleaning up his act. Though he personally stopped doing crimes it was still happening all around him. Being luckier than most of the other people he was able to get a better education and he excelled in school. Though his parents urged him to further his studies (even though they all knew they could not afford it) he joined the Nepleslian army.
