Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Jonathan is a soldier. His calling is the Nepleslian military and he accepts that. He is social, and generally friendly, and can make tough decisions without much trouble (though whether his decisions are the right ones are up for debate). Unlike most Nepleslians, Jonathan has a strong sense of morality and chivalry, viewing honor as the epitome of being a good soldier. Likes: Honor, Chivalry, history, flirting, and generally being the good guy. Dislikes: Evil, dishonor, rudeness, drinking in excess Goals: To be a general in the SMoDIoN

History

Family (or Creators)

One female Nepleslian creator. No brothers or sisters. Jonathan is the male variation clone of his mother.

Pre-RP

Jonathan was raised as an only child by his mother in a slum outside of a wealthy Nepleslian neighborhood. His mother worked as a servant in the house of one such Nepleslian, and was rarely home. When she was home, she filled Jonathan's head with stories of grand adventures and escapades of ancient warriors. These stories stuck with him and created fantastic dreams of going out to fight for the SMODION and coming back a hero. Jonathan's mother also managed to sneak books and data sticks from her workplace and introduced culture to her son early on. Jonathan would often scold his friends when he caught them stealing, which resulted in many fights, most of which he lost. Over time Jonathan managed to toughen up, and he continued to try to emulate the warriors of old. When Jonathan was 18 he realized that his life in the slums wasn't going to get him anywhere, he began to look to the SMODION. He had heard reports of an attack on the Reds at Kennewes and decided to join up. He ended up as a standard marine and saw some action at Kennewes, though he was fortunate enough to miss the heaviest fighting.

Skills

Communications

Jonathan is familiar with standard communications equipment and can manage it to the extent of his basic training as a marine.

Fighting

Jonathan can use and maintain all standard-issue equipment given to marines for use in battle. He has a special affinity for hand-to-hand combat since he considers it more honorable than picking off enemies from a distance.

Survival

Jonathan can survive in most oxygen-rich environments, using his standard military training as a reference in times of need.

Tactics

Jonathan understands the basics of unit and squad tactics to the limits of his basic military training. He can understand and execute most orders on the battlefield and can make informed decisions on the fly.

Humanities

Jonathan has a rudimentary understanding of anthropology and sociology thanks to the books and data archives his mother smuggled to him when he was younger.

Knowledge

Jonathan has a decent understanding of international relations and history as well as a veritable plethora of incredibly useless trivia. Again, most of this is thanks to the data his mother smuggled to him.
