Kess in Roleplay

Kess, a seemingly solemn and distant Savtech JANE, first served on the NSS Kestrel. However, during the Kennewes Offensive, the NSS Kestrel was badly damaged and decommissioned at the end of the conflict. Kess, instead of being assigned to a new vessel for the post-war effort, was sent to work under Cassefin Montreal on the Nepleslian Arms and Munitions "Cirrus" Class Research Station.

As of now, not much is known about Kess. She seems to be much more aggressive and less eager to please than her counterpart Savtech, Mimi, as well as much quicker and more clever.
