History

Family (or Creators)

- John Salem (Father, Deceased)
- Marie Stanton (Mother, Deceased)

Pre-RP

Having lost his parents as a child to the Mishhuvurthyar, Salem was enraged. He threw out his old name, going only by "Salem" and nothing more. He lived on the streets for years, picking up anything he could learn and eating whenever he had the money or bravado to get food. He learned street fighting tactics at a young age, and kept them when he signed up for the NSMC. He was also a very good free runner, and used this skill to evade pursuers, whether greedy gangsters or angry store owners. When he joined the military, people started calling him "Wolf." It started as a derogatory joke because of his short-temper, animal-like instincts, and rugged appearance, but the nickname stuck and he still carries it. He has been training in Nep-fu from a young age; his father was a Marine Second Lieutenant and taught Salem how to fight. He is also very skilled with all of the core NSMC weapons.

Skills

Communications

Wolf speaks Nepleslian and Yamataian, and can operate basic radios as his Marine training specified.

Fighting

Wolf is a skilled martial-artist using Nepleslian Marine Self Defense Training (Nep-fu) that he blends with various dirty tricks and mixed martial arts moves learned fighting on the streets. He is very good with the standard issue Combat Knife and Combat Axe, and is well-trained in the use of all of the standard issue firearms, though has a personal preference for the HHG revolver. He is also trained in the use of power armor.

Physical

Wolf is a skilled free-runner, stemming from his time spent on the streets after the death of his parents.

Survival

Wolf has training in survival based on the NSMC training protocols, but is also very skilled at surviving on nothing in an urban setting, stemming from his time on the streets.

Rogue

Wolf is a skilled pick-pocket, and is very good at picking locks as well. He has trained his senses so that he can focus in on important pieces of conversations that he is not actually a part of.
