History

Ramona Trobella was born in YE 16.

Ramona is the older twin sister of the Trobella family, being born a couple of hours before Cynder. The trobella family wasn't rich and the twin's father worked three jobs to make sure the family had some money for clothing and food. As the older sister she always felt a little more protective of her younger sister, giving Cynder more food whenever the family had some food.

As Ramona grew up she always made sure that Cynder was patched up if her twin needed it. Ramona and her sister also used to go to shops and she would talk to the shop owner as Cynder grabbed food, or medicine, or whatever the family needed and then her and her sister ran quickly out of the shop witht the supplies, hiding in narrow and small places. in these places, if the sisters stole some food they would eat some of it, if not they waited a little and then the twins headed home to lay low a little.

When Ramona and her sister went to a school to learn, Ramona made a few friends at the school and always got Cynder to join them, when she and her friends were going out to the park or something. Ramona had to break up fights that Cynder started and calmed down the situation as best as she could.

When the twins where old enough they joined the Nepleslian Space Marine Corps and trained hard to prove themselves. Ramona went for more of a medic route as she had learnt from hands on experience throughout life, with the help from Cynder and her accidents when the twins were younger.

When Ramona and her sister finished training and joined the corps fully, the twins made sure they stayed together and jumped from ship to ship to keep their knew living going.
