Ariel Castien

Species & Gender:	Caelisolan Elysian Female
Year of Birth:	YE 10
Organization:	Galactic Horizon
Occupation:	BioTech Team
Rank:	Head Technician
Current Placement:	Galactic Horizon

Character Description

Ariel stands at 5’6” with a curvy, buxom hourglass figure that, while fit and healthy, has a certain softness to her overall form – her hair is cut short in a bob and is mostly the same snow-white colour as Ariel’s wings, with both having hints of blonde tint throughout.

While there is no doubt Ariel is a hard worker who has results to back it up she can sometimes come off as a playful and a little matronly when not working through jobs that come across her desk with almost scary efficiency - rather enjoying being a quite social thing when the opportunity presents itself.

History and Relationship Notes

Much like the rest of her family, Ariel always had a knack for tinkering with electronics and fixing things that others broke – though she had another interest, medicine, which lead to her enlisting in the Star Army of Yamatai as a medic. After a few years of enlistment Ariel ended up leaving for more gainful employment that landed her a position as Galactic Horizon's head of Biomedical Engineering.
