

Ally

Ally, short for Alliance, is the physical representation of the NSS Alliance's DEIMOS operating system. She has the rank of Lieutenant on board.

Ally herself has the appearance of a lithe, attractive female Nepleslian, sporting blonde hair and bright green eyes. Ally is also known to wear red nail polish, and her movements and actions are often very elegant and measured. It is also not uncommon to see Ally act and speak in a flirtatious and overly-cheerful manner.
