Character Description

A pair recently cloned Kuvexian Hybrids whose appearance is in the late teen years by Human standards or the Kuvexian equivalent. They're both relatively tall, thin, and long-limbed, and are nearly identical except that Koloon is male and a bit taller and broader, and Sodoon female. His hair is a deep, shiny black and hers a rich deep brown. They dress in a colorful, ostentatious, and visibly expensive style that is a blend of Yamataian and Kuvexian fashions.

History & Relationships

Soon Bardoon had been unable to find a mate to her satisfaction, and certainly never produced any offspring with any of her potentials. Once the Kuvexian Hybrid had been perfected by Quallox Vaibal, she had the idea of creating a family of loyal subordinates using her own genetic material, and that of a composite of various Humans she found particularly attractive as a base, picking and choosing the best traits. The cloned twins are her beloved children and most trusted servants. They are seldom found alone.
