

Benjamin Jonstien

Benjamin Jonstien is an NPC who appears in The Galactic Shipping Agency

Benjamin Jonstien
Species:	Human
Gender:	Male
Organization:	Galactic Shipping Agency
Occupation:	Head of Logistics

Character Description

Jonstien stands at 5'8 and is quite plump. He has deep red hair and wears half moon glasses, shielding his dark blue eyes. He is often seen wearing a grey suit with matching tie.

History & Relationships

Jonstien was born is late YE 22 and has never been one for rules. He always loved doing things his way, even if his way got him in trouble with the law. After some time in juvenile detention, he seemed to straighten his ways in many peoples eyes, however beneath the skin he was just as dastardly as before. He'd just gotten better at hiding it.

He joined GSA with Jonathan Serptine to “try and make a difference” but those who know him best know he's just after another way to move illegal objects around the galaxy.
