Character Description

The twins are borderline identical in both mentality and physicality and are often confused for one-another when in their flight suits. Both bare soft, lightly tanned, androgynous facial features and svelte, pear-shaped figures that flare out slightly at the hips - with Cili's modest chest and Csgnor's dainty pectoral muscles almost mirroring each other. Piercing blue eyes face the world with puppy-like wonder and delight, with the main visual distinction between the two being the way their ash-brown hair is styled. Cili's hair is kept in a braided undercut that falls down past her shoulderblades while Csgnor's hair tapers into a low faux-hawk.

The two are easily excitable and seem to feed off each-other's boundless reserves of energy, never afraid to ask questions and bother others with their wonderfully honeyed voices. The twins think the world of their flight-lead and almost see her as the mother goose of their small squadron, taking any troubles and doubts right to her before anyone else.

History and Relationship Notes

Csongor “Huginn” and Cili “Muninn” Szilágyi are an inseperable pair of Na-F/A-6\(b\) "Sabre" Multirole Fighter/interceptor pilots for the Nepleslian Star Navy, born in YE 23 on Hope.

While their parents trudged around in ore-haulers the twins were more interested in the streams of spacecraft coming and going from Haven's ports, with talks of becoming space pirates with the fastest corsair the sector had ever seen. This edge was dulled by the time the two were old enough to enlist in the navy, now dreaming of becoming infamous fighter pilots whose IFF signatures sent chills down the airframes of their foes. The two were among the top of their class and showed an impossible-to-replicate mental synchronicity, while the bait-and-switch tactics showed in training were deemed reckless they were also highly effective and could mirror each-other's flight-patterns to within the tightest of parameters.

Following a successful career as aces the twins found themselves under the command of Yildiz "Midas" Avci as two thirds of her four-man “Warwolf squadron” attached to the Second Expeditionary Fleet - their fighting style meshing well with Midas' varied skillset.
