Character Description

Physical Description

Hyung is a rather young, and beautiful woman. She is Yamataian/Minkan by blood, with both parents having been born on Yamatai. She has shoulder length black hair that is straight as a board. She has a rather athletic figure with a rather plump rear, and a smaller chest that rings in at about 30B in cup size.

She stands at about 5'3" in height and weighs about 115lbs. She has almond shaped eyes, with pupils that are larger than normal with iris' of red, a rare color of iris for the Minkan. She has normal circular human based ears that have normal curvature to them, as well as pale white skin that is almost flawless aside from a small scar on her cheek that she got during an engineering accident.

Personality Description

Hyung is a rather quiet girl, while outgoing when around people she's comfortable with, she will instantly turtle up when around people she doesn't know. She takes a great amount of pride in her age and how far she's come in such a short amount of time. She also looks up to her chief engineer; Anabel Ghent as her inspiration to become a better engineer. When she doesn't turtle up, and gets comfortable around people she can be kinda wild, and more open than she seemed to be at first. She is extremely protective of those around her, and is exceptionally loyal to those who she would consider friends willing to go as far as to die for them if she needed to.
