Lexington Alabaster McGregor

Alias/es:	Lexi, Lex
Species & Gender:	Male Half-Elf Nepleslian ¹⁾
Organization:	Galactic Horizon
Occupation:	Botanist
Rank:	TBA
Current Placement:	Horizon Expeditionary Force

Character Description

Lexi stands at a rather average 5'8" with a rather lean build due to their genetics leaning more towards the Elven side of zer heritage, slim though with a small hint of toned muscle owing to their halfbreed-nature - somewhat of a swimmer's build with sculpted legs that lead up into a nicely formed and toned behind, a somewhat tapered and defined abdomen and lean arms it is clear at a glance that Lexi isn't any kind of trained soldier. Lexi owes a lot of zer natural androgyny to their elven heritage, an angular, clean-shaven face with high cheekbones and a triangular chin frames Lexi's mousey nose and pert lips - green eyes with hazel speckles hidden away behind round-lensed glasses and a naturally ginger fringe, usually swept to the right with the sides kept back where they sweep up behind Lexi's neck, the left ear having a faintly elven tip while the right is entirely human-shaped.

Lexi isn't particularly shy not overly loud, striking somewhere in the middle with somewhat of a book-worm vibe about them, usually seen hugging a small pile of literature as ze moves about the headquarters of Galactic Horizon - Lexi has a bit of a tendency to overpack zer backpack when sent out in the field but you'll hear no complaints from zer, Lexi is also extremely understanding if people slip up occasionally or have a tough time getting their head around the way ze chooses to conform to neither gender.

History and Relationship Notes

Lexington Alabaster McGregor was born alongside his twin sister YE 19 on the agricultural planet of Terra Multa, a young boy with an ex-NSMC father and an Elven herbalist for a mother who had both settled down into the farming lifestyle - Lexington was always a bit of a quiet boy, an outsider that didn't feel like he fit in anywhere for a lot of his life, the reason why became more apparent when he attended Osman University and was exposed to a lot more of the universe.

Lexington was quiet about it for the majority of his studies, deciding to get that out of the way before seeing how this new lifestyle felt - it took Lexington's Father a little longer to fully understand it but both parents were understanding and encouraging when their son came out as wanting to identify as non-binary, Lexi was always a nickname people seemed to adopt and it was neither an overly masculine nor feminine name so ze stuck with it and moved over east to get a job with Galactic Horizon at the end of YE 40 to become one of their botany experts - and more importantly a person who felt like they had finally found their true self.
