This event greatly depressed Reiko, and after discovering the reason for her sister's actions, it enraged her. She went on to serve several ships, over the course of three years as a starship operator, manning combat systems. She destroyed many enemy ships with the ship's artillery at her disposal. Reiko still tried to contact her sisters over the years, only stopping when Tenshi left for the UOC. After her mandatory service was done, Reiko stayed in Kyoto working several jobs over the years, as a maid, martial arts instructor, waitress, even a small gig as a drummer for a live jazz club. It was during this gig she met her future best friend Sasaki Miyu. She lived well, but a spark was missing. She decided to rejoin the Star Army. This time she decided to be closer to the action.
