Physical Description

- Akaris is a clean-shaven 20 year old Norian male with the athletic, slender build typical to his race. He is 183cm tall, has a mass of 64kg and his skin is a pale rose-water in colour. Akaris has long four-knuckled fingers on each hand and the slender elongated pointed ears typical to elven species, but otherwise appears similar to Yamataian stock.
- Almond-shaped eyes of viridian green, with silver flecks and a starburst around the pupil, look out upon the world - usually with a detached and analytical gaze that only tends to warm up around those Akaris feels a connection with.

- Chest-length, straight, silky smooth maroon hair is usually pulled taught and pinned back to prevent it from falling in front of his face. Aside from his eyebrows, has no other hair on his body.
- His natural scent has hints of lavender, cedarwood and jasmine. Akaris has a pleasantly clear, tenor voice.
- No cybernetics, but Akaris has had a Sthibon Symbiote implanted since birth, which essentially enables him to react/learn as if possessing a digital brain.

YE 45

In YE 45, Akaris was assigned to 52nd Squadron, YSS Teisenjou, 2nd Expeditionary Fleet.

- Mission One: Surprise Skirmish
 - Ambushed by a mixed pirate force of starfighters at the start of a routine patrol of the XR-8 system, Akaris was initially overcome by the chaos. After several seconds of defensive manoeuvring, he utilised the Mozu's advanced systems to punch his way clear from the fight to launch a sensor drone, relaying its feed to the Nagamaki supporting the squadron.
