History

Creators

- Ketsurui Zaibatsu

Pre-RP

- YE 29 Anjin was created as a NH-29 to serve in the Fifth Expeditionary Fleet as a starship operator aboard the YSS Azami a Sakura-class Light Gunship. She served well aboard her ship and was content with her duties. Anjin would often volunteer for any opportunity that gave her more at the controls of her ship. The ship was her home, and she had several close friends in the crew that were her age.
- YE 30 was a year of loss for Anjin, the officers of the Azami and most of the crew went with the 5XF to leave and form the UOC at the start of the year. She remained behind unable to break her oath to the SAOY. With the Azami leaving she lost the only home she knew. Anjin could not understand why the officers she had served under would break their oath. Her friends tried to persuade her to come with them, but that her friends chose to go with them confused and hurt her. She was assigned to the Fourth Fleet. Anjin fought with depression from being away from her ship and friends. This was further compounded by being treated with a stigma from having come from the 5XF. Shore leaves often resulted in her finding herself cooling off in a security holding area after getting into a bar fight. On duty Anjin always performed her duties in a satisfactory manner.
- YE 31 At the start of the year she had a long talk with her commander. Her commander made her realize that she had nothing to prove to anyone but herself. Anjin took the commander's words to heart and turned herself around. She went out of her way to get along with others, and ignored any derogatory comments cast in her direction.
- YE 32 When Anjin's contract was coming up for renewal, she spoke to her commander and cross trained into Star Army Science Officer. She entered into this part of her career with a sense of drive, to prove herself. Anjin started taking courses through the Scientific Studies Service \(SSS\) to make her better at her new career. She spent more than half her off duty time taking courses. She also got a genetic tattoo of 老実, which is Kanji for Fidelity.
- YE 34 Halfway through the year Anjin decided she wanted to make a change in her career to better serve, and prove herself. She contacted her commander and told him she wished to apply for Basic Officers Training. Her commander gave her recommendation and she was approved. Just before going to attend the Mayame Officer School, Anjin took the surname of Chūjitsu. She graduated from the school in the top third of her class.
- YE 35 While waiting for assignment she heard that Ketsurui-Motoyoshi Katsuko was looking for crew members so she put in her request. She served on the Admiral's ship working on the bridge.
- YE 37 Anjin requested reassignment aboard the YSS Ryūjō. She received a promotion to Shoi with her transfer.
