Physical Description

Calliope is an Athena Type Artificial Neplesian female standing at 5'6" (170 Centimeters), the standard for her typing. She has a rather standard athletic build in comparison to other, larger Neplesian clones, making her appear like a normal Neplesian in comparison. She weighs in at almost exactly 165 pounds (or ~75kg). Calliope has a tan skin tone, and she has vibrant lime green eyes which contrast with her normally very tired looking gaze. Her facial structure is fairly similar to that of an average Mutari Lianjia. She also tends to have a noticeably exhausted expression.

Callie's hair is a plain dark brown color, reaching down to just under her shoulders. While usually her left side is left unattended and is very usually free flowing, She tends to tie her hair up into a front braid on her right side. While wearing power armor, she tends to tie her hair up into a low hanging ponytail to keep it out of her face. She has several cybernetic implants showing on her face, mainly for cosmetic purposes: one on each cheekbone, and the other going over her nose bridge. Callie's voice is a little quiet, and is usually complimented by a tired tone- sounding as if she were on the verge of repeatedly yawning.
