Pre-RP

Caroline was created with a few others Nekos so they were all 'born' at the same time, they call each other sisters because they were taught together and stayed together throughout training, she felt happy with the other Nekos and cared for each of them. When they all finished training they decided to get teddies to remember that they care for each other, Caroline got a little plush seal and loves it a lot.

History

Caroline was part of a crew of a new destroyed ship, she protected herself until help arrived in the form of the YSS Sakishima, while the landing party was on the ground they were attacked and Caroline ran around using her medic training to help all the crew that was injured.
