Physical Characteristics

- Height: 4'9" (145cm)
- Mass: 92 Lbs (41.7 KG)
- Measurements: 32B-23-34

Build and Skin Color: On the short side, standing at a mere 4'9" with a light purple skin, Yurisa is not an immediately imposing sight. Despite her height though, her body is quite fit, erring more on the side of a lean, slender fitness over more muscle, giving her a more lithe and graceful appearance than normal, even for a Nekovalkyrja. Her bust is quite modest, bordering between a large A cup and a small B cup, though she fills out more towards her bottom with more pronounced, firm thighs and rear. Each of her hands contains four fingers and a thumb with a trimmed fingernail on each digit.

Eyes and Facial Features: Her eyes bear a slight almond shape to them, but are mostly rounded. Her irises are a golden yellow, catching light to give an almost glowing aspect to them when outside in natural light. She usually wears a small bit of black eyeliner to compliment the purple of her skin and line her eyes a bit more. Her mouth is slender, an average size but her lips fullness is on the smaller side, though with her slightly narrow face it isn't too out of place, having a more subdued chin. Her nose is mildly upturned, the folds of her nose close in with a softly pointed, but shorter tip. Overall her face has a somewhat 'tomboyish' feel to it.

Ears: Yurisa possesses the typical Neko cat like ears, coming to a point and covered in a fine golden brown fur.

Hair Color and Style: Atop her head, Yurisa's hair is a light brown color, which when in direct sunlight lightens to more of a golden brown shade. Yurisa wears her hair short across most of her head, swept back in a feathered manner aside from two longer strips of hair at her temples, running down to roughly her jaw line which she keeps braided, and another similar at the back of her neck roughly four inches across and runs down to just above her waist, which she keeps braided in two separate braids down her back.

Distinguishing Features:

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Quick to friendliness, shes the type who usually approaches most people with a smile and a cheerful word. Outgoing, shes the type who can't help herself from being at the center of things or with people whenever she can. This can sometimes lead to her to be a little 'too' friendly and casual with people, but she'll usually notice when shes gone too far and pull herself back some. That's not to say she can't be quiet or serious, but provided the mood doesn't make it inappropriate, she's liable to be friendly and spirited.

When in more tense situations, she approaches situations primarily with excitement. The thought of battle, and tense situations makes a surge of adrenaline rush through her, making her even more animated than usual. This can lead her at times to become somewhat single minded, though she does keep herself from getting -too- excited, making sure to practice self control and reigning herself back at times to make sure she doesn't get too hot headed or short sighted in combat, which could cause problems with her squad (Though she can straddle the line at times.) Due to this though, one can usually find her at the front of things in a fight.

On a personal level, she has a strong sense of justice and honor, putting the Yamatai Star Empire first, and can get riled up at injustices against its people, particularly if its citizens are harmed/mistreated significantly or killed. This is doubly seen in her tendency to take on things more often, piling more responsibilities on herself at times than she can handle if it means another might not have to shoulder them instead, though she can be kept considerably more in line if commanded by a superior officer directly. Shes fond of strong feelings, favoring things such as combat, exceptional food (Which she sill gladly eat far more than she truly needs), and things of a carnal nature. She however prizes having a clear mind, keeping her far away from any substances that alters her mind (To say nothing of the illegal nature of most of them), disliking even the feeling of just waking up (Not a morning person at all), and anesthetics that make her mind fuzzy.

- Likes: Good tasting food, Fencing/Close Quarters Fighting, History and Technology, Ahem
- Dislikes: NMX, Excessively cold people, Mornings, Being alone
- Goals: Explore herself, one day find that 'perfect weapon' she can use.

History

Family (or Creators)

(Mass produced)

Pre-RP

Created at a Type 30 Mass Cloning Facility, Yurisa spent a brief time to ensure she was without flaws before she was moved to her training facility, where she began her personal training. She performed well in her studies and physical examinations, integrating herself easily with people, though had a tendency to somewhat 'wander away' just as easily as she met a group as well, only finding a small number of actual friends despite her demeanor. This led to her getting something of a reputation as a "whimsical cat" as she drifted to and fro, fitting in but always seeming a tiny bit detached.

From a combat standpoint, she had a tendency to take the most difficult and forward roles in things. Usually preferring to be the tip of the spear, which served her well enough as a soldier, but her forward nature made her higher up viability somewhat lower, usually deferring to someone else for command. Her ease in dealing with people however, was quite a plus for multiple squad exercises. Coming out with a passing overall grade, she was then sent out to her first assignment.

Skills

Communications

She is fluent in Trade and Yamataigo. She can use basic radios, her SPINE, and telepathic commands proficiently. Has some ability to command, but is somewhat limited in scope beyond herself and maybe one or two others for the moment.

Fighting

Excels in close quarters combat primarily, favoring melee weapons/hand to hand combat and shorter ranged weapons such as energy pistols and grenades, though usually will opt for the higher stopping power of energy rifles if expecting heavier combat. Is capable of using more long ranged combat, but is not her forte to the same degree.

Technology Operation

She is able to use the Kessaku OS proficiently, able to search for information with it. She has an intimate knowledge of it due to her Nekovalkyrja lineage, but is constantly trying to improve her ability to use it still.

Mathematics

She is able to perform mathematics to a great degree, due to her Nekovalkyrja lineage.

Demolitions

While not entirely proficient with them yet, she has expressed interest in demolition, able to recognize common explosives and their handling. Is not yet proficient in manufacture, or disposal of such, nor of more exotic explosives.
