A practitioner of Velos Ennoia \(Arrow Sense\), one of the most deadly martial arts created, Corvina's body is a well-refined machine of muscle, constantly being refreshed by the soul transfer machines to make sure her body works properly. As a result, although her age is entering the forties, her body gives the appearance of someone in their mid-twenties.

She tends to look a little tired all the time, although her clothes and hygiene are in top shape. She wears a red hair clip on the left.

Due to continuous genetic perfecting and personal training, Corvina's stamina and wings allow her to fly with precision continuously for 1.5 hours. She can fly for upwards to 2 hours, past that amount she must take a rest or risk physical injury.

Her measurements are 34-28-36. Her bra size is 34C.

Personality

What's done is done. Work before everything. It's just another day on the job.

This is the mantra Corvina lives by every day as she deals in her wet work. She's here to protect Elysian and its interests, and that's all...

Yes, that's all there is to it. She's one of Elysia's finest agents and her duty is thusly so. Continuing on.

Her work is all that is. Her work is above the law. She keeps her resolve and mind as clean and sharp as the blade of a commander's Xiphos, and her body about as rigorously trained. She can disguise herself as quite an unassuming person, but she knows how dangerous she can be. On the side, she does calligraphy to refine her precision.

She hopes one day Elysia can rise to its ideal self, where every Elysian can be proud to say that they are from Elysia. She is not above new ideas.

She enjoys ice cream. She also enjoys cheese and wine platters.

The only milk she will drink is lactose-free milk.

History

Corvina was born before the rise of the Yamatai Star Empire and watched what it became today. Little is known about her early, as is expected for her occupation. It can be estimated, however, that she most likely was raised in a slightly above average Plebian family. It can also be estimated that she may have been drafted during the Third Elysian War, although it is very unlikely she was merely 'drafted,' moreso 'chosen' or 'volunteered' due to her position in the military, most likely volunteering by herself to serve her country as can be inferred by her devotion as well as the fact she stayed to serve Elysia despite the fact that most of Elysia's forces joined the Tenth Fleet.

She has shown much effectiveness, as she has completed multiple missions, including but not limited to [REDACTED], [REDACTED], as well as [REDACTED]. After the assassination of the Elysian Emperor, she was moved to [REDACTED] for her failure in protecting the Emperor when she could, although a number of factors, listing [Data Expunged] including external interference from [REDACTED] meant that it was not purely the fault of the Military Intelligence.

During the Fourth Elysian War Corvina's role was a much more subtle one, obtaining intelligence on [Data Expunged] which helped some of Elysia's offensives, but ultimately she did not do enough. During the Second Mishhuvurthyar War she actually collaborated with [REDACTED] which helped weaken the enemy forces.

At the end when Elysia was declared a suzerainty of Yamatai, Corvina remained loyal to Elysia's cause, hoping for a better day. In the meantime she is currently under the Senate's military commission's command.

There are rumors that she once had an affair. It is unknown with who, however.

Skills Learned

- Fighting: Corvina is incredibly well-versed in the Elysian ranged martial art, Velos Ennoia. She can handle guns to an incredible degree and has learned many tricks such as quick-draw, speed reloading, quickly unjamming a gun, and using guns using only instinctive sense.
- Strong Telepathy (Empathic Sense): Used as the telepathy required to perform well in Velos Ennoia, Corvina uses this ability to sense conscious minds through barriers in order to achieve greater accuracy while shooting blind. Her maximum range to sense emotions while under stress is 50 meters, doubling to 100 meters if she is not currently under stress. For comparison, an Olympic swimming pool lane is 50 meters.

- Communication: Corvina is familiar with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, starships, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. Corvina is fluent in Seraphim, Neplesian, and Yamataian. Corvina can speak and write both correctly and efficiently and can write reports, fill forms, issue orders under fire, etc. She can also communicate telepathically at a distance of 1km.
- Physical: Corvina consistently keeps herself in shape in order to always be prepared to defend herself or carry out some operation. Her strength and agility are honed strong enough to perform the maneuvers associated with Roi and Floga for extended fights.
- Rogue: Being in the intelligence service, Corvina knows how to use stealth and some associated finesse skills.
- Chemistry: A useful skill Corvina has picked up, this helps her in the field to improvise some substances for immediate use.
- Technology Operations: Another skill associated with the intelligence service.
