She performed with her mother for a year before striking out on her own. She enjoyed performing, and watching the audience. But after the show she always had a sense of something missing. One night that changed, after a performance a young man approached her. He said he needed her assistance, but it might be risky. He needed her assistance getting into a party, and the host was a fan of hers. Konpeki found the prospect of a bit of adventure too good to resist. She got them in easily and kept the host distracted while her 'date' did what he needed. Afterwards they enjoyed a few drinks before he left he gave her a card. Saying "You might want to check this out." The next morning she contacted the nearest Star Army recruiting office, and applied for SAINT.
