Pre-RP

Ellisif is a newly created Nekovalkyrja from Fort Shotou on Daichi and has just completed her mandatory 98 days of training in the Star Army and then additional 3 months as a starfighter pilot. During her training she showed a natural affinity for small fighter craft and showed a knack for controlling them under speed while also remaining accurate, off the simulators she was noted as an intelligent and well-behaved pupil who showed a lot of promise underneath the professional demeanor.

In psychological evaluations she has had some minor issues in regards to her social abilities and has been recommended for more team-based assignments in order for her to more closely learn the value of her comrades.

The only serious slight on her record was when she failed an assault simulator where she showed a lack of initiative in a mock bomber escort mission, the point of the exercise was to test the pilot's decision making abilities under patchy orders, and rather than abort the attack she lead the majority of her fighter wing into heavy fire in order to draw AA attention while the bombers completed their mission. The attack was a success however there were heavy losses all around and in a larger campaign it would have been a crippling victory for the fleet. It is noted that she showed an exceptional talent for dog-fighting and while she may have lacked the compassion and sense to protect her team mates, her ferocity and skill shone out as her scores dominated the kill board. This sheer brutal talent has made her rather popular with the other cadets, if somewhat feared.

Ellisif also received a minor disciplinary for injuring a fellow trainee during unsupervised hand-to-hand training.
