Physical Description

Suama stands at a above average height of 5'5" (167.64 cm)) and weighs 109 lbs (54 kg). She has an athletic figure, leaning towards a slightly hourglass shape. She has a larger (32D) sized bust. Her skin is Cerulean in color, and on top of her head is stone blue hair, generally kept in a low side ponytail, so as to keep her waist-length hair out of her eyes. Her eyes are deep set, and are emerald green in color. They are approximately a single eye's length apart (1 Inch/2.5 cm). Between her eyes sits a small, button nose with appropriately small nostrils. Suama has two long, hair covered ears on the sides of her head where they belong, and a slate blue tail protrudes from just above her rump!

Suama smells very sweet, like a plate of apple pie, or a batch of brownies fresh from the oven.

Her voice is a 'low' soprano, though she is far from soft spoken!

Personality

Suama is a very outgoing, take the lead type of woman. She enjoys taking charge, and leading the way to success! She takes her job very seriously, and has a deep passion for making people come together through food. She adores social situations, thrives in them, in fact she's always looking for someone to interact with.

She likes socializing, being in charge of a team, food, and special events.

She dislikes people ignoring her, people not doing their jobs to the best of their ability, and pickles!

History

Eto Suama was 'born' in mid YE 33 on Yamatai

Pre-RP

She started her life as many Nekos do, created and sent off to basic to serve and defend the Yamataian people. Through this Suama took easily to the life set before her, often finding herself taking charge of her many sisters, and the satisfaction of a job well done- thanks to teamwork. She found a love of food, and went through the training to become a Star Army Cook. As time went by the young Neko found that her affinity for leadership and food skills made her an excellent coordinator and event planner. She became an excellent server, finding herself cooking meals less and less, and instead interacting with crew more and more.
