Distinguishing Features:

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Hael is eager to distinguish his own military career from that of his fathers who was often considered I highly valued infantry man in past conflicts. Hael purposely chose to be a fighter pilot so that he would not be held to the same standards as his father Halcyon Hawk.

Hael seems to exist as a polar opposite to his father, often operating on instinct and gut feelings and wild impulse unlike the cool, calculated training of his father. Hael often feels ashamed that his father has not upgraded to the new Minkan body NH-31 to continue his service and he feels it his obligation to maintain his family's honor by doing so.

- Likes: Piloting and training
- Dislikes: Spending time with family
- Goals: To become a distinguished and decorated fighter pilot in the Star Army of Yamatai

History

Family (or Creators)

Halcyon Hawk and Halcyon Lilyth

Pre-RP

Hael was born in the year YE 16 to his parents Hawk and Lilyth. Growing up he often watched his father go away and come home from many military conflicts, each time with stories about his feats and triumphs. Hael grew up in awe of his father's prowess in battle and endeavored to follow in his footsteps. When Hawk declined to have his body upgraded and retire from the service, Hael felt betrayed and hurt. Because of this, Hael's focus changed from being in the infantry to becoming a fighter pilot.
