Physical Description

Tsuruko is a genetically-tattooed Nekovalkyrja, Type 33, 5'5 in height and 99lbs in weight. Her skin is bronze-hued, streaked along the arms, legs and stomach by extended, bright red geometrical patterns; a genetic tattoo, clearly.

Her face is somewhat angular and well-defined, with deep-set, haunted-looking light blue eyes - almost luminescent. The oval head is framed by shoulder-length cherry blonde hair, slicked back over the blonde fur-covered, elongated ears, against the scalp and down her cranium. Not a single strand moves about. Red lines, about five centimetres wide, run down her cheeks and disappear below her neck, skilfully avoiding her small nose and perpetually frowning lips.

A slight smell of ozone, for one reason or another, always hangs around Tsuruko.

Her voice is low, almost a growl - not unpleasant, strictly speaking. Her enunciation is slow, carefully paced. Either pitch or pace seldom rise.

Personality

Perhaps the word that best describes Tsuruko is 'collected'. Whether 'arguing' with someone or in the midst of an engagement, one would be hard pressed to observe her panic or even just lose composure. That is not to say Tsuruko is heartless, far from it. When off-duty, she is capable of being fairly empathetic and, above all, open towards her perceived friends. Unless, of course, said friends happen to outrank her, in which case they tend to receive the military treatment, all the time, no matter what. Career aside, Tsuruko is an avid martial artist, opting to disable her would-be foes with merciless, tactical movements rather than brute force. For more or less similar reasons, the TA-14 easily finds its way into her favourite weapons list.

Tsuruko has a noted dislike for shenanigans on duty, and people who partake in them.

In the past, she has expressed a strong desire to command her own vessel.

Another interesting quirk of Tsuruko's is a strong fascination with the Ketsurui Samurai; their lifestyle, their traditions, to the point of trying to emulate the aforementioned.
