Psychological Characteristics

Personality: "Loud." Is the adjective normally associated with Sekai. When talking, when laughing, or even when walking, she is simply noisy. When speaking, she is very animated – moving her arms, or gesturing with her hands. When working, she carries her natural talent to shout orders – or abuse – to her technicians and the pilot's who handle "Her" fighters.

Likes: Food, social gatherings, working machines, organized 'things' Dislikes: Broken machines, combat, people who yell back at her.

History

Pre-RP

Created during the first Misshuvurthyar war, Sekai entered the Engineering field as her first choice – above a combat position – and stuck with it. She rose through the ranks over time, and proved herself capable of handling the technicians under her command.

Skills

Maintenance and Repair

Sekai was trained in the use of all standard maintenance tools used in the Star Army of Yamatai. She is capable of repairing vehicles (Primarily Fighters) and changing important parts.

Knowledge

Sekai knows a surprising amount of information on many starships and standard equipment within the Star Army.

Mathematics

By the very nature of a Technician, one has to know how to take stock of remaining equipment and tools – and how to barter with other crews and technicians for such parts. Sekai is a master of this skill, and if a part is out there and one of her projects needs it, she can find it.
