Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Born for a life on the road, Hidetsugu Mizuki was born as a SAINT Nekovalkyria, but her wanderlust led her first to the United Outer Colonies, then to Democratic Imperium of Nepleslia. As such, she knows someone in almost every port of known civilization, from drinking buddies to friends with benefits. Despite this flitting around, when the Jiyuuvian makes a close friend, she likes to stay close to them, regardless of the consequences. While this is usually a virtue, when she attached herself to a psychotic IPG officer, Joshua Bates, after fighting alongside him during Evacuation of the Tange System, many strange looks were given by her former comrades as they went back to Yamatai. But it made sense to the Jiyuuvian, who knew that she had a lifelong friend and off and on again lover in the Nepleslian.

With her near-boundless optimism,

This section contains a description of your character's personality. What are they like? What are their motivations? Their goals in life? Are they hard working or lazy? What are their habits? Are they easily angered? Are they brave or cautious?

To his superiors and his nation, he is loyal and tries to know what their needs are before they do. To his subordinates, he is a brutal, but fair, taskmaster, making sure that they train for every possible, even unlikely, eventuality. Whatever they might think of his treatment, he knows that going through hell in training keeps soldiers from going to actual hell on a mission. So, you might say that he cares...he would kill you for saying that, but it describes the situation well. And he's head over heels in love with a sociopath of a girlfriend, Cleo, whose murderous tendencies only made things more exciting for the Neplesian.

Before battle, Joshua is analytical and cautious, taking care to not be suckered into a trap. This all changes once battle begins, with the inner bloodlust and an apparent disregard for life and limb coming out. This has gotten him in a few scrapes and he's somewhat sobered up after losing one too many comrades to enemy gunfire that could have been prevented.

Whenever he visits the Funky City, he makes a point to visit the mother of his favorite dead comrade, Greg Washington. Other than those visits and the social functions a soldier of his rank is required to go to, he keeps to himself. The only times he is social is over a bottle of Neplesian whiskey, teasing his long-time subordinates, or when he's alone with Cleo.

- Likes: Firing new weapons, sex, sarcasm, Coffee, black.
- Dislikes: Prudes, people who she sees as invading her territory, being ignored
- Motivations: Looking for new experiences, loyalty to her comrades, optimism.
- Goals: 1. Stop underestimating new people and species. 2. Captain my own ship. 3. Sleep with the Empress.

What relationships do they have to other people? Are they social? What kind of people do they like? What have their past relationships been like? How do they treat other people?
