Juno in Roleplay

Juno is a player character played by Bullet Pink.

Physical Characteristics

Height: 5' 6" Mass: 114 lbs. Measurements: 32-23-33 Bra Size: 32C

Build and Skin Color: Although taller and more shapely than the typical NH-29, Juno has a lean and taut build from regular daily training. Her ivory colored skin is marred only by the freckles populating her shoulders and upper back.

Facial Features and Eye Color: Juno possesses a classical facial structure with high cheekbones and arched eyebrows set above a pair of almond-shaped, icy-blue eyes that perpetually look half asleep. Lightly sprinkled across her pert nose and cheeks is a smattering of freckles. A pair of fuzzy, tiger-striped cat ears poke out from the side of her head.

Hair Color and Style: Her wavy platinum tresses are usually worn bunched-up behind her head in a lazy half-updo and held in place with hairpins. The locks that don't make it in, tumble down to reach between her shoulder blades.

Distinguishing Features: A legacy of her MPI origins, Juno has a genetically tattooed barcode located above her hips, just underneath her SPINE interface port.

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Being a massed produced cloned being, Juno is certain that if something tragic were to happen to her, that she would be easily replaced. She was born to be a soldier and being a soldier is all Juno knows. Her utilitarian and no-nonsense attitude tends to give the impression that she is a military drone that doesn't care about anything outside of orders. Orders and military operations make sense, Juno is quite comfortable with those, it's the things that are out of the bounds of orders that make her pause. It isn't that Juno doesn't care, it's just that she wasn't given the Standard Operating Procedures for things like friendship or idle talk.

Her sharp, analytical mind perceives the universe around her as strategic points and tactical movements. Relationships are seen as shifting systems of power and influence dynamics. Although it doesn't stop her from trying, unquantifiable concepts like fun and friendship confuse Juno because she can't assign concrete numerical values to them. Not to say that Juno doesn't enjoy having fun or friends and the like, she just can't quite figure out the correct protocols for them.

Whether from her programming or not, Juno is intensely loyal and duty bound to the Star Army of Yamatai.

Likes: Reading, military history, combat exercises, field training, chess, military rations, and cute things.

Dislikes: Large gatherings, having to repeat herself, complications, clutter, useless talk, mornings, loud noises. Goals: To ensure the continual safety and prosperity of the Yamatai Star Empire, to become more than just another cloned soldier.

History

Family (or Creators)

Star Army of Yamatai

Pre-RP

Created number JUN-0-81bX922g7 as a Mass Production Infantry unit for the Star Army of Yamatai, JUN-0-81bX922g7's history started the same as countless others. From creation, intended to be a soldier and trained to be one, she knew little else besides military life. Her trainers all suspected that something may have gone awry somewhere along the way in this unit's creation. For one thing, she referred to herself as JUN-0-81bX922g7 until one of her instructors got fed up and shortened it to simply JUN-0, which later became "Juno". Although Juno excelled and exceeded many expectations during her basic training, there was always something not quite right about her. It seemed as though she had difficulties relating to anything that was not military operations related. Luckily, massed produced infantry aren't created to have tea or be pleasant, they're created to do battle. Juno excelled enough at that her trainers decided to train her in infiltration techniques in addition to the standard training program for MPIs. By the end of her training period, although still a bit odd, Juno had become socialized enough to function with others in teams.

Having passed final inspection, Juno is currently awaiting orders.
