Physical Description

Kytas is an unusual Norian, she has a height of 183 cm and weighs 75kg. She has pale green eyes with gold flecks and waist length green hair. She tends to wear e-girl style clothing in a variety of colors to keep things fresh and people on their toes. Her hair tends to be in whatever style suits her goals for the moment, though her favorite is flowing loosely. Her slim-thick physique can be attributed to personal diet and targeted fitness goals.

Personality

Kytas is an ENTJ-A ²⁾ personality type. Kytas is a very outwardly expressive woman who is very comfortable in group settings with plentiful social interaction. She is highly intuitive, picking up on subtle nuances in the surrounding environment and those around her. Her thought process is centered around objectivity and effectiveness over social harmony for appearances sake. She is a rather judging individual when it comes to her work which shows in her decisive actions and thorough planning. She is very even tempered and resistant to stress, a part of her rather assertive nature.

History

Kytas was born on Telegath in 172 BYE to the same parents who would later conceive her younger brother Talynn Drenai. Her birth occured after the formation of the Drenai Ysi during the middle of the The Falcon Movement. Throughout her early childhood she heard stories of the clan's founder Drenai and aspired to one day follow in his footsteps as a personal guard for the Eitan Ysi. When she became of age she studied multiple forms of martial arts under the tutelage of Drenai himself, excelling in the most tenacious manner possible. Throughout all she would do during the course of her life she would always make sure it was in holding with the Phaloam of her Ysi.

Approximately in the year YE 01 she served briefly under Emperor Caecyan before his abdication after Dysteria's destruction. Following the abdication her service fell to that of Adrin Eitan, where she personally accompanied him on several of the trips he made to Ayenee. During those trips she became intimately aware of interminglings between the Kingdoms and Empires that resided on the surface. While the Chaos Hive War was ongoing she functioned almost as Adrin's shadow, unless he expressly requested privacy, which she never questioned. Following the war she maintained close connections with several Norians who chose to immigrate to the Uesureyan Star Empire/Yamatai Star Empire which proved to be an excellent decision later in her life.

During the Umarian Wars she remained in Adrin's shadow, fascinated with his certainty of what the ancients had left behind. In one fateful instance that Emperor Adrin ordered her to stay behind he was captured by Lao'Taun. It was a life changing event for her and she vowed to carry on in her duties to the Eitans. That included the very controversial personal belief that she refused to believe him dead unless certain criteria were met, those she disclosed to no one. With Adrin gone her service fell to Tetsuya Eitan \(Airwin Caeyara\), where she went with the team of Admirals to bring Tetsuya/Airwin back to be declared Emperor.

From YE 31 to YE 40 she served under Tetsuya Eitan \(Airwin Caeyara\) in the same manner as she had with Caecyan and Adrin before him. In addition to this tasking she also kept ears out on where Aelya Eitan lived during the Void Wars. When her homeworld was destroyed she mourned in silence, holding true to her duties over falling to her own emotions. In the following years she would pick up dancing as a form of relaxation, losing herself in the rare instances when she was not requested to be present. After the death of Empress Sinith she was even more of a protective shadow than before, personally accompanying him onto the colony ships while the Emperor acted under the name Airwin Caeyara. She had intimate knowledge of the Emperor's fragmentation and took on the role of following Airwin.

In YE 44.7 she arrived along with him to the Kagami Galaxy north of the Kikyo Sector. Much to her protest she was not permitted to accompany him to the meeting with Ketsurui Yui. This did leave her time to catch up with her contacts in Yamatai, who very graciously gave her a thorough course on the ins and outs of life in the Kikyo Sector. This would later aid her as her role transitioned from personal guard for Airwin to head of security for Caeyara and Eitan Ysi, who would soon assume their original mantle of Eitan.

When the year YE 45 rolled around she became quite busy with her new role. The palace at Asarthortar along with keeping the family safe during their adjustment proved to be challenging in a whole new way, in comparison to her previous work that is. She also played part in arranging for the distractions and transport while Airwin's inhibitor was disabled so that he could be made whole again. Knowing that Airwin, now Tetsuya, would have to return to the United Norian Imperium she offered to remain and protect those of the Eitan Ysi who for one reason or another, stayed behind.
