Mist

Mist

Creators:	NG-X5-18
Organization:	Star Army of Yamatai
Rank:	Nitô Hei

Physical Characteristics

Height: 4'7 Mass: 95 lbs. Bra Size: C

Build and Skin Colour: She has small, slender build with pale white skin.

Facial Features and Eye Colour: Her small face makes her brown eyes seem bigger then they actually are.

Hair Colour and Style: Her straight blonde hair extends down to her shoulder blades. She sometimes puts it up in a bun if she doesn't want it in the way.

Distinguishing Features: Being a former sprite, she does not have any real distinguishing features.

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: It is difficult for Mist to become angered. Some things do cause her to become angry, but these things are few and far between. She was friends with the entire crew of the NG-X5-18. She was cheerful and caring. After the ship was destroyed in battle, however, her perspective of reality was turned upside-down. She is now occasionally both sad and lost at the same time. She tries to keep up a cheerful attitude, but it is hard sometimes. When she is alone, she cries, but she doesn't know why. She has been returning to her old personality as of late since the pain of loss has subsided over the years.

Likes: Being petted and working. Dislikes: Being called "Sprite" as if it were her name. Goals: To find a purpose in life.

History

Pre-RP

Mist was created shortly after the deployment of the NG-X5-18 as a nurse sprite that helped out in the medbay. Unfortunately, during the Battle of Jiyuu, her ship took heavy damage. While out helping a wounded Yamataian to the medbay, the ship began to break apart. She desperately tried to save the Yamataian by dragging him into an escape pod, which launched right before the ship was destroyed. She awaited rescue by ships from the Fifth Expeditionary Fleet.

Service Record

NG-X5-18 (Destroyed)

Mist was born as a sprite aboard the NG-X5-18, the sister ship of the YSS Sheridan. When the NG-X5-18 was destroyed in battle, she was one of the few survivors. She was found in an escape pod, guarding over a wounded Yamataian crew member. She and the other survivor were recovered aboard the YSS Asuka.

YSS Asuka

Due to her valiant actions, Mist was promoted from sprite status to the temporary rank of Santô Hei and received the Service and Combat Lifesaver medals. However, the loss of her home and sprite family left her emotionally imbalanced. After a short stay aboard, she requested a transfer to the YSS Akigumo to clear her head of past horrors.

YSS Akigumo

Soon after arriving aboard, Mist met Kage Yaichiro. She immediately took a liking to him and began lowering her guard while she was around him. Eventually, she allowed all of the grief over the loss of her sisters to flood back while they were in private together. This, as well as sexual deprivation on her part, eventually resulted in them making love. Later on, Yaichiro offered to adopt her, which in turn would grant her freedom to forge her own path. Even though she had secretly fallen in love with him, she agreed and took up the name Kage Kasumi.

UCS Vanguard

Soon afterwards, the United Outer Colonies seceded from Yamatai, which included Jiyuu where Mist and Kage Yaichiro were living at the time. Mist had formed a friendship with Kotonoha Miyako, so she decided to stay. Although Yaichiro returned to Yamatai, he left her with a small fortune (500,000 KS equivalent) to satisfy her needs. She had to return her NH-29H sprite body to Yamatai, so she received a new Jiyuuan body as well as the rank of Peacekeeper Recruit. She served briefly aboard the UCS Vanguard before her enlistment ended.

Civilian Life

It was around this time that Mist lost contact with Kotonoha Miyako, which saddened her in a way since she had become quite attached to her new friend. She was alone in a strange new world, so she returned to Yamatai and find her adopted father, Kage Yaichiro.

Once she had returned to Yamatai, Mist met Ise Katae and was able to get her help in reenlisting into the Star Army of Yamatai. Using the Star Army's communication network, she was also able to regain contact with her long lost father.

YSS Aeon

Mist was assigned to the YSS Aeon under Ise Katae as a medic and promoted to Nitô Hei due to her past service. She didn't really fit in, unfortunately, and was eventually transferred to the YSS Integrity to aid that ship's medical staff for a time.

YSS Integrity

Aboard the YSS Integrity, Mist upgraded her body to the new Minkan Model. She decided to remain relatively the same besides making minor adjustments to her bust, which in turn also added a little to her overall weight. After a decent time learning from, and in some cases teaching, the medical staff of the YSS Integrity, she finally decided to request a transfer to the YSS Sakura II Plot to be closer to Yaichiro, her request was denied at the last minute. She instead received orders to the Gemini Star Fortress based out of Hanako's Star due to a sudden dire need of trained medical personnel.

Gemini Star Fortress

Although saddened by leaving her adopted father, she committed herself to her new duties, and time actually passed quickly for her. While serving aboard the station, Mist received additional power armor training and became a squad medic once the manning crisis had been averted. She was able to maintain contact with Yaichiro for the most part with weekly messages, but as time progressed, he seemed to become more and more distant.

It was at this time in her life that she met Shelly Megami, a buxom blonde Yamataian who became fast friends with a very shy Mist at the time. Their relationship turned into practically sisterhood, even though the former sprite still had a hard time discerning family from friends. They were practically inseparable after working hours, and a sense of dread filled them both when new orders came down from high command. Fortunately, this feeling turned into one of relief as they were going to be stationed together on the YSS Hana. Overjoyed at this lucky turn of events, nothing could stop the pseudo-sisters now!

YSS Hana

Although initially not successfully social aboard her new ship, Mist still had Shelly with her, so it wasn't completely lonely. When the YSS Hana commenced her long range patrol of the Western Wastes, communication with her adopted father worsened even more, and she began to wonder if he was alright.

Skills

Communication

She is familiar with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, starships, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. She is fluent in both Trade and Yamataian. She can speak and write both correctly and efficiently. She also has a slight telepathic ability.

Fighting

She has been programmed as if she has received hand-to-hand combat training, followed up with a rigorous training program. She is skilled and experienced in combat both in Yamatai-like conditions and in zero-gravity, with and without weapons. Weapons she is trained in include energy pistols, knives, and power armor.

Technology Operation

Since she was created by a computer, she is capable of operating any computer system that uses the Kessaku OS, found on all Star Army starships. She is proficient in entering and/or searching for information.

Mathematics

She has basic mathematics training, to including up to algebra and trigonometry, programmed into her from her birth.

Medical and Science

She is quite knowledgeable with medicines and first aid, can assist and perform (depends on the complexity) surgeries, and other various medical procedures.

Domestic

It is uncertain if it is programmed into her or not, but Mist is a very tidy person. She'll pick up after the crew if they are messy... sometimes not realizing that they often leave stuff around just so she will have to bend over.

Art and Vocations

She has found a love for writing short stories and poems. She usually makes them up about people that she interacts with. She decided to start writing a diary the next chance she gets.
