If something felt good, she did it, living for the moment as it suited her. Before being offered command, she had her hair changed from its natural black to a shocking white as a final brazen display of her individuality. Now she's more serious and a firm commander who tries to not take herself seriously, but at the same time wants to see those under her excel as well. This often makes her come across as ambitious and impatient to people outside of her close friends and comrades.

History

Family (or Creators)

Star Army of Yamatai

Pre-RP

Yoshiko was created to serve in SAINT. Her roles have always varied which has given her a large understanding of SAINT operational procedure as well as the various roles involved within. Coupled with her ambitious attitude, Yoshiko has always performed exceedingly well in all of her operations and simulations. The main issue for concern however was the stints that Yoshiko would go on post-mission. On one occasion Yoshiko found her way into the captain's quarters completely smashed. The captain arrived a half hour later to find her nest full of vomit and Yoshiko sleeping peacefully to the side. On another she dramatically redecorated her room from Star Army standards to a Neo-Kyoto Rave Pit, complete with blaring music. In spite of all of that, whenever deployed she produced good results. With a careful eye, her superiors recommended her for promotion, hoping that the responsibilities of command would mellow her out. So far, they haven't been incorrect. Yoshiko's scores in officer training and command training have been slightly above average, though they haven't noticed any of her more extreme outcries of individualism yet. Regardless, Yoshiko's progress is monitored heavily.

Following the YSS Genei's mission, she continued to captain small gunships and scout vessels for SAINT. In YE 39 she was given command of the YSS Kōkatsu.
