Physical Description

Ori is a tall and athletic Minkan, standing at about 6 feet tall and weighing around 152 pounds. He has a strong, muscular build, with broad shoulders and defined muscles visible through his Star Army uniform. His skin is a light tan color, and his face is framed by a mane of silver hair that falls to his shoulders in a messy, unkempt style. His eyes are a piercing grey, and are often narrowed in concentration or intense focus. Ori has a friendly and approachable demeanor, and is often seen smiling or laughing with his comrades. He carries himself with confidence and purpose, and is respected by those around him for his professionalism and dedication to duty.

Personality

Ori is a responsible and reliable individual with a strong sense of duty and loyalty to the Star Army and the Yamatai Star Empire. He is highly intelligent and analytical, and is always looking for ways to improve himself and his team. Despite his serious demeanor, Ori has a good sense of humor and is well-liked by his comrades. He values honesty and fairness, and works hard to maintain a high level of personal integrity.

History

Ori Satai was born 27日 6月 23 in Yamatai \(Planet\). Ori Satai was born in the capital city of Kyoto, Yamatai to a family of Minkan engineers. From a young age, Ori was fascinated by the inner workings of machines and spent much of his childhood tinkering with and repairing various devices. He excelled in his studies, particularly in math and science, and received top grades throughout his elementary and middle school years.

As a teenager, Ori became more interested in the military and decided to pursue a career as a soldier in the Star Army of Yamatai. He worked hard to prepare for the rigorous physical and mental demands of military training, and eventually enlisted in the Star Army upon completing high school. He then attended a junior college and received a degree in Strategic Intelligence, after which he applied for and was granted the opportunity to complete his War College training aboard the YSS Azalea II.
