Character Description

* Height: 6' 7" * Mass: 135kg * Measurements: 35C-21-35

Her skin colour is tanned but gets darker towards the carapace on her body, she has a model's body but cannot be seen because of the carapace Her eyes lack any whites and are instead jet black, whilst the irises reflect ambient light and glow slightly with gold iris and black slit pupils. She has a heart-shaped face, with a slightly small nose and thin lips with teeth are slightly larger, sharper and more numerous She has cat-like ears on the sides of their heads, positioned where a human's ears would normally be, with actual fur instead of the Nightmare scales which are pink. She has bright pink hair, that is done to be short around with a fringe that is longer on the right side so it covers her right eye. Parts of her Torso and shoulders are covered in scales, spikes and thick bone carapace that protects the major organs, feminine reproductive systems and their spinal cord from external harm. Along their backs on either side of the spinal column are two tentacles like those found upon the Mishhuvurthyar, and are able to be configured into any of the varieties available within the Mishhuvurthyar Tentacles.

Rebecca is like a young girl even though she looks twenty, she is immature and seems to be childish, she also acts protective especially to her creator and friends, she seems to keep changing from a fun loving girl to a strict, angrier with a aggressive and hostile behaviour. Her personality seems to change when someone she cares about are in danger, it seems even though she has been mad more like a Neko than a Nightmare Type, her Nightmare Type side comes out but because she is part of the Star Army she still fights for the Star Army.
