Physical Description

- Height: 3'10"
- Mass: 109 Lbs.
- Measurements: 23F-21-42

Although she possesses an extremely diminutive frame, Rowena Fay has a vigorous, yet markedly feminine physique. Surprisingly heavy for her size, her form bears conspicuously elephantine thighs, expansive hips, and steatopygian buttocks. In order to support the weight of her plump bosom, her core maintains subtly visible muscle definition. However, she also has narrow shoulders which lead up into a slender neck.

Her skin has a creamy-pale shade that contrasts striking with her blue hair and alice blue irises. Rowena's facial profile is shaped like an inverted triangle, defined by a pointed jawline, big wide-set eyes, and a button nose. Her doll-like lips are typically painted with a deep violet red color. Finally, pointed elf ears and high arched<sup>1)</sup> brows that are a slightly darker shade than the hair on her head frame her features.

Personality

A woman of extreme moods, Rowena Fay is an emotionally volatile individual. She feels nearly every sensation in excess, making her a particularly dramatic and impulsive woman, especially pertaining to romance, love, and sex. Given her extreme youth, her ability to perceive nuance is lacking, making her especially prone to outbursts if something or someone confuses her. Nevertheless, she is also highly driven and motivated. She adheres to a rigorous workout and training routine, which she executes in order to improve her reflexes, reaction time, and physical strength so that she can pass the Basic Pilot Course and become a starfighter pilot.

History

Rowena Fay was created on Nataria in YE 41. Designated to become a civilian factory worker in order to bolster the production of Zesuaium for the Kuvexian War effort, Rowena was initially sent to Central Uesureya to work in the Zesuaium factories. However, after seeing a formation of Hayabusas flying over Central Uesureya during her first day of training, Rowena opted to enlist in the Star Army instead, with the goal of becoming a fighter pilot. After completing basic military training, Rowena immediately signed up for the Basic Pilot Course. However, since she was unable to match the more accelerated reflexes of her Nekovalkyrja peers, she was transferred to a different course in order to train as a Gunner. In spite of her extreme disappointment at her failure, Rowena managed to score high marks in her training, particularly for marksmanship and surprisingly, given her theatrical tendencies, trigger discipline.

After she graduated from training, Rowena was assigned to the 17th Strategic Bomber Group. Although she was proud of herself for passing her Basic Gunner Course, Rowena still maintained her ultimate goal of becoming a starfighter pilot. Soon, after continued effort, Rowena earned her first billet as a full pilot, with her assignment to the YSS Azalea II in YE 44.

However, she also has excellent marksmanship and trigger discipline, lending her a heightened degree of per-shot efficiency compared to her peers. In addition, her training in utilizing SPINE to link with the omnidirectional sensors on most Star Army Small Craft has allowed her to make accurate real-time predictions regarding the future location of targets, allowing her to precisely place shots during split-second intervals that would otherwise be nigh-impossible to execute. Her training to improve her reaction time and reflexes continually yields significant boons to her marksmanship, which she hopes to eventually apply towards becoming a starfighter pilot.
