Physical Description

Dai stands at the slightly below average height of 4'11" (165 cm) and weighs 109 lbs (54 kg). She has an athletic build with a medium (30c) sized bust. Her skin is Rasberry in color, and on top of her head is dark magenta hair generally kept in 'victory rolls', or a messy bun on particularly busy days . Her eyes are upturned, and are golden honey-yellow in color. They are approximately a single eye's length apart (1 Inch/2.5 cm). Between her eyes sits a small, button nose with appropriately small nostrils. Dai has two long, hairless ears on the sides of her head where they belong, and a dark magenta tail protruding from just above her rump!

The easiest way to describe the way Dai smells is 'clean', almost sterile!- like a medical bay.

Her voice is a low alto, her volume rarely falls below an 'inside' tone, but is very quick to grow in volume.

Personality

Dai is a very active, excitable woman - one will rarely find her sitting around twittling her thumbs. There's always something to do! She can be incredibly emotional in social situations, but is generally calm in serious, stressful situations. She very much enjoys social interaction, and if she isn't working she's very likely looking for someone to entertain herself with. She becomes easily attached to her friends and crewmates, and is quick to become protective over those she becomes close with, along with patients - especially patients- Forever the mother hen.

Dai is ultimately motivated by her loyalty to Yamatai and desire to keep her crew alive.

She likes socializing, staying active and assisting the wounded.

She dislikes sitting around doing nothing, failing at anything, and being told how to do her job.

History

Royama Dai was born in early YE 34.

Pre RP

Dai started her life like a lot of Nekos, created, and set off to basic to serve in the Star Army of Yamatai. There wasn't a complaint to be had, she was always happy to be a part of a greater whole, it made her feel important in a way. Upon completion of basic she was sent off to Star Army Medical training to become a Medic. Dai enjoyed the lessons and more hands-on training in the medical field, it excited her and gave her an opportunity to more directly save lives. Over the course of her medical training she became protective over others, akin to a mother hen.

Dai proved herself time and time again to be a competent medic, and through her service to Yamatai and those she served with she moved up through the ranks. From green and wet behind the ears, to a seasoned medical professional.
