History

Family (or Creators)

Sibyl and her family are part of a small clan called Burning Venom.

Pre-RP

Sibyl was born into a family of Seven and stayed with her mother from birth till she was fourteen she spent that time helping out her mother at home, sorting out the household and helping with her siblings as she was the first to hatch and wanted to help her mother out. When she reached fourteen she took her ritual of adulthood and became an adult with this she still helped her mother but also researched what she wanted to be when she was older, and started working to be part of the army on her planet.

She stayed like this till the Yamataian star army met their species, after seeing these interesting people she had decided that she would help them happily, so when the Separa'Shan became part of the Empire she left soon after that and headed to become part of the star army. She had to be enrolled in the Academy but excelled easily with her experience from the Separa'Shan army and when she was finished she started on her some basic ships quickly gain ranks as her methods got results but weren't always well received with others of the crew as the mission always took priority even over the injured.
